Description:

Looking to build your dream hangar or hangar home? Look no further than Georgetown Airpark TA68, a beautifully designed, gated aviation community just fifteen minutes to dining, shopping, and medical care in Georgetown, about half an hour from Austin!

With several 1+ acre level, cleared tracts to choose from, Georgetown Airpark boasts a 3200×75' irrigated turf strip and a 1000×50' hard surface RCA runway. Share your passion for aviation with neighbors and at community events in the fully equipped pavilion. Amenities also include a covered mail station, underground utilities, public water, high-speed fiber optic internet, and five RV parking spaces with electric hookups. Prices starting at $250,000.
