Description:

CBRE is pleased to offer approximately 10,620 SF of hangar space for lease inside a private hangar facility at Boeing Field. The tenant would have access to a high-end lounge area, kitchen, and restrooms. This is a great opportunity for a private aircraft owner or flight department looking to secure a highly private hangar, or an aircraft charter or maintenance operation requiring hangar space at Boeing Field. There is also an approximately ± 492 RSF office available for lease, as well as an approximately 2,047 RSF office suite with private conference rooms, reception, and lounge areas available for lease.
